The Meadowall Sheffield Sunday Football League

Code of Conduct for all Member Clubs, Officials, Players & Spectators

1. All Clubs in membership of this League agree to abide by the rules of the competition and this Code of Conduct before they are allowed to continue playing in this League. New clubs must also adhere to this before gaining admittance to the League.

The attached form must be signed each season and returned to the League Secretary by no later than 1st June, otherwise a £25 fine will be imposed.

NB Any of the following sanctions will only be put in train once the S&HCFA sanctions have been completed.

2. Any Club that has been found guilty by the S&HCFA relating to offences of misconduct under FA rule E21 on two separated occasions during one season, may be dismissed from the League, in accordance with League Ruled 17(a) and may be fined up to £1000 for each offence and may be fined up to £100 for each offence and any points gained in the matches) may be deducted. Clubs will receive a written warning from the League after their first offence, which they must acknowledge receipt of to the League Secretary.
3. Any Player having been found guilty by the S&HCFA of a physical or technical assault on a Referee/Assistant Referee or other serious misconduct of any kind shall have his registration withdrawn for a period of five years, in accordance with Rule 8 (h) (ii).
4. Any Club Official having been found guilty by the S&HCFA of a physical or technical assault on a Referee/Assistant Referee or other serious misconduct of any kind shall be prohibited from holding any office with any team in this League for a period of five years.
5. The League has the right to charge Club/Officials/Players/Spectators with bringing the League into disrepute with regard to FA Rules E2 and 26 and, if found guilty, to impose a fine of up to £250 (for each offence), as well as expulsion from the League.

NB This is intended to cover any playing matters not covered by 2 to 4 above, but also extends to any social functions organised by the League.

6. Where the Club "conduct" forms received from referees (see 8 below) indicated ongoing negative or adverse behaviour by a Club, its players or spectators towards the appointed Official (s) the League Management Committee shall have the power to require explanations in writing or in person and as a result shall have the options to order one or more of the following courses of action to eliminate the problem (s):

- i) The offending club shall be requested to fully or in part, rope off the pitch.
- ii) The offending club shall be required to nominate linesmen for training courses or training against an official FA approved training course for subsequent appointment and use at the Club's home fixture.
- iii) The offending club shall be required to provide a set of flags for use by linesmen so appointed or otherwise appointed by the League.

Offending clubs so ordered shall, if they fail to comply be subject to further action by the League including ultimate dismissal from the Competition – subject to right of appeal to the CFA.

7. Players who persistently transgress may be ordered to face the League Management Committee to explain their conduct and give written undertakings as to their future conduct within the League.

This action will only be taken after all S&HCFA sanctions have been completed.

8. Referees/Assistant Referees will report ALL incidents, initially to the S&HCFA and in addition they will complete a form assessing Clubs 'conduct' towards them, before (including match instructions), during and after the game.

NB A new 'Fair play/Courtesy Trophy' to be supplied by the League PLUS Cash Award of £250.

9. All Clubs to display a copy of this Code of Conduct at their Headquarters and in their Dressing Room.

All current member Clubs have agreed to this Code of Conduct, all prospective clubs have to agree before acceptance into the League. This code of conduct ensures that the Meadowhall Sunday League maintains the highest standards and therefore the status of being the best Sunday Football League in South Yorkshire.
